Mr. Corn Seed
Once upon time, there was a Mr. Corn Seed. He was flying with the wind to see where to grow.
Then it went to the desert. He went inside the sand of Arizona. It wasn’t good. He said “Ohh, It is dry and hot”.
Next, he flew with the wind to Chicago. It was windy, snowy and cold. He said "I am shivering, I am cold".
Then, he flew with the wind, he went to Galveston beach in Texas. He said” The sand is very, very ,very wet. The water will carry me to the ocean.” Mr. Corn Seed was sad.
The wind carry him to Musa’s garden in the back yard of his home.

Musa saw Mr. Corn seed. So, he brought a big pot.
He put dirt and compost and dug a small hole in the dirt and plant Mr. corn Seed.

He put some waster on the pot and put it under the sun.
Finally, the days past and Mr. Corn seed start to grow.

He grew to a big corn stalk. Musa was very happy and ate the corn.
